● This boarding school for Indian children was established in 1917 near Black River Falls where for forty years previously a day school was conducted. Moved to Neillsville in 1921. An outgrowth of over sixty years of Christian missionary work among the Winnebago Indians. Cares for a hundred and ten Indian boys and girls. Offers an elementary education, manual arts, and religious education. A charitable institution supported by voluntary gifts.

For information and suggestions for ways of helping, write to

SUPERINTENDENT BENJAMIN STUCKI
WINNEBAGO INDIAN MISSION,
NEILLSVILLE, WISCONSIN

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

2B-H1367

POST CARD

WINNEBAGO INDIAN MISSION SCHOOL of the EVANGELICAL and REFORMED CHURCH
NEILLSVILLE, WISCONSIN